GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK, March 20 .-The Hudson County Jockey Club is ettner playing in luck or has a strong pull with the clerk of the weather. This morning there was every indication that this atternoon's racing would be con-ducted over a track ankie deep in show. The ienthery flakes were inling fast towards noon, but it cleared and the day changed into mild and Summer-like weather.

The programme was one of Secretary

Whitehead's best efforts and it promised exceilent aport.

The track was in good shope and very fast. The autondance was very large, fully 8,000 orde being present when the first race was Manager Carr Says that the Injunction Against the Hilltop Is Illegal.

From all appearances the pool-rooms are a dead letter. Not one of the rooms has been opened since the raids were made a week ago, and the fact that many of the prominent proprietors are making books at Guttenburg seems to making books at Guttenburg seems to indicate that hope has been abandoned. The suspicion that Tammany Hall is behind Supt. Byrnes in the latter's warfare against the rooms is growing stronger day by day. It is said that three prominent politicians called on Mr. Croker, just after the latter's return from the South, to learn the Tammany Hoss's opinion on the pool-room question. Mr. Croker is reported as having said:

in puglism. Dixon is in pretty fair condition to put up a harricane contest, for twelve rounds, and there is not the slightest doubt that the great little slightest doubt that the great little chony-hued prodigy will do his famous name justice.

Despite the advantage which Siddons will have over the sable boxer, as regards condition, Dixon is very confident that he will have very little trouble in lowering the colors of the New Orleans purilist.

In agreeing to meet Siddons in so short a time, Dixon has earned the good will of the sporting public, and it reflects credit upon him.
